Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I hope you are well. Please note my new London address. Since you did not reply to my last letter, I assume that it never reached you - an increasingly common occurance with my mail, especially mail relating in any way to the political assassinations.

In the letter, I asked you for another copy of Oswald in New Orleans, as I cannot locate my own original copy. I would also like one copy each of your 'Post Mortem' series of books, along with your invoice for same.

Is it possible to get a copy (official or otherwise) of the Clay Shaw trial transcript? Any help you can give me on this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Trusting that this letter will reach you, and thanking you in anticipation of your reply,

Yours sincerely,

Christopher Scally.
